

No remorse at all
No remorse at all
I'm breaking out, a minute
No remorse at all
No remorse at all
I'm breaking out, a minute

No time to cure, feelings that cause all this pain
Here to obey, haunted by my souls decay
I thought it's a child's play, no matter what i say
Before i live a lie, i would rather fucking die

No remorse at all
No remorse at all
I'm breaking out, a minute, before i forget to see
The truth in me
No remorse at all
No remorse at all
I'm breaking out, a minute, before i forget to see
The truth in me

Who killed the world, why is there so much agony
I am the ghost, of the past that haunts a memory
I wish that i could grief, no fucking self-pity
The world goes down in flames
And i will watch you burn

Before i have to live a lie
I'd just rather fucking die

No remorse at all
No remorse at all
I'm breaking out, a minute, before i forget to see
The truth in me
No remorse at all
No remorse at all
I'm breaking out, a minute, before i forget to see
The truth in me
