

DEADEND - MONOTONE feat. Quiet

Break

Break, you called up so late and i wait
This needle means too much fate
It's too late, to forget all the threats, that we made
Hate being used for that crap

Its busting disgusting
But still tastes for me
Dry-Eyed, i tried
But you lied to me

Take me back to reality
It's driving me insane
I want sanity (Sanity)
All i wanted is clarity
But the faith about it still remains on me

My thoughts been going blank
Apathetic stare as the poison spread
Warm hug with death i needed that
False cure all praise the living dead

Wake, i'm here to save the mess you make
What did it take, to turn to first base
Observing your chase
Moving with pace, for fucking sake

Save me
(Save me)
Save me
(Before it breaks me)

Save me
Before i never really can not quit
Save me
Falling through this fucking misery
Save me
Before the the lights in my eyes turn black
And it conquers me, it breaks me

They watch me like a diamond in the ruff
I be pure bliss
I got pesticide tainting my blood
Im no purist
Gimme more venom more love
My muse speak
The purest form shall break me

Take me back to reality
It's driving me insane
I want sanity (Sanity)
All i wanted is clarity
But the faith about it still remains on me
